IDENTIFICATION

Our comprehensive international footwear database, constantly updated by a team of researchers, enables us to identify shoe prints with a very high degree of success.

Simply email your shoe print images to us and we will provide you with details of all shoes bearing that sole pattern held on our database - remember that some sole units are often used on a range of shoes and even by different manufacturers.

it's extensive... we have the largest pattern coded footwear database in the world, currently over 13,000 records it's evolving... we are adding new season's models to the database at the rate of over 100 per month it's efficient... we aim to respond within 24 hours* subject to demand it's easy... for details of how to use the crimeshoe service simply visit...
